Auckland v Bay of Plenty

Last week the All Blacks showed the world what they're capable of against the Wallabies here and now we return to the All Blacks' proving ground in the Mitre 10 Cup.

Rieko Ioane has been released to play for Auckland this weekend against the Bay of Plenty which will be a great opportunity for him to remind the All Blacks selectors what he brings to the table. Bay of Plenty sit atop the Championship table having absolutely demolished Premiership contenders Waikato in the weekend so expect a great contest.

The main game begins at 5:05pm and the curtain raiser features King's College and St Kentigern in the 1A Secondary Schools Final. This game kicks off at 3.00pm with gates opening at 2.15pm. These kids are absolute stars in the making and will be sure to put on a great show. King's College last won in 2005 so this could be a historic moment for them.

We have 125 tickets up for grabs, first in first served. As usual, we'll be here from 7am tomorrow at Gate G reception (limited to two tickets per household in The Hood).
