Morningside Urban Market Garden

The onsite Morningside Urban Market Garden has recently been treated to a makeover to see it through the upcoming winter season. Our staff helped out at the working bee where garden beds were arranged and compost was inoculated and sifted. If you know of a corporate business who would like to participate in a working bee, please get in touch on mumg.growspace@gmail.com

Have you purchased your own organic microgreens from the MUMG yet? Keep an eye on their Facebook page for more pop-up food stalls where you can buy fresh produce from the grounds of New Zealand's national stadium and support our local community.
