

From: info@edenpark.co.nz
Sent: Thursday, 26 April 2018 3:47 p.m.
To:
Subject: Updates and Winners!

Tickets for the Blues v Jaguares

The Blues take on the Jaguares this Saturday in a clash which the Blues should expect to win. Having said that, the Jaguares are quickly learning to play at the pace Super Rugby requires and have come off a good win against the Brumbies.

Although injuries have taken a toll on the Blues, Perofeta has looked a good fullback option in the meantime as he learns the 10 role, and Akira Ioane is looking every bit the world class number 8 he's threatened to be for the past couple of seasons.

We have 125 tickets up for grabs, first in first served, from 7:00am tomorrow at Gate G reception.

*Limited to two tickets per member of The Hood.

Street Art hits Eden Park

This week we are hosting American street artist WRDSMTH who has been leaving his mark on Eden Park in a series of permanent art installations.

The globally renowned writer has previously collaborated with Banksy and holds a similar somewhat anonymous reputation within the international street art community.

His custom works can be seen both inside and outside of Eden Park, adding a sense of community flavour and illustrating that Eden Park is a blank canvas to express creativity through not only sport but also, arts, music and entertainment.

Don't forget Kingsland Flavours on tonight from 5.30 to 8.30, check out info here!