

From: info@edenpark.co.nz

Sent: Wednesday, 9 May 2018 4:20 p.m.

To:

Subject: Tickets for Blues v Hurricanes

To view this email as a web page, go here.

Tickets for the Blues v Hurricanes

After a gritty win against the Waratahs, Australian Conference leaders, the Blues return home to take on the Hurricanes with a side looking much less cobbled together than they have for a long time.

Sonny Bill Williams is the big returner, back after a wrist fracture in the loss to the Stormers in round four, and he will want to perform with Ngani Laumape his opposite and competitor for the black jersey. Ofa Tu'ungafasi is back after knee problems kept him out for three weeks. Melani Nanai makes a return off the bench, adding to the already immense threat in a Blues attack which is near the top of the competition in run metres, line breaks and offloads.

The Hurricanes have only lost one this season but this proves an interesting match up with former Blues member Ben Lam pushing his All Blacks credentials against incumbent Rieko Ioane.

We have 125 tickets up for grabs, first in first served, from 7:00am tomorrow at Gate G reception.

*Limited to two tickets per member of The Hood.

The Eden Park team is growing!

Last Thursday evening our CEO Nick and his wife Eliza welcomed a wee girl into the Sautner family.

Anastasia Rose Egan Sautner was born at 7:23pm on May 3rd, weighing in at 7.1lbs (3220gm) and 50cm.

Nick says it will only be a matter of time until Anastasia is down in the turf shed working at Eden Park.

Thanks to those who have sent messages to the family.