Blues v Waratahs

The Blues take on the Waratahs this Saturday and are in the hunt for their fourth straight win this season which would give them fantastic momentum running into a big stretch of away games. The Waratahs have been very inconsistent lately, being the team to break the Crusaders' winning streak then losing to the Sunwolves.

We have 100 tickets up for grabs, first in first served. As usual, we'll be here from 7am tomorrow at Gate G reception (limited to two tickets per household in The Hood).

Balmoral School Duathlon

With parts of it currently in rebuild, the Balmoral School duathlon will this year take place at Eden Park. This Sunday 7 April, up to 300 students aged 5 to 12 will take part in a run/cycle duathlon within New Zealand's National Stadium, giving these future stars an opportunity to compete and perform in the same venue as their sporting heroes.

Fifa Women's World Cup Trophy Tour

The official FIFA Women's World Cup Trophy Tour celebrates the premier women's football competition by travelling across the globe and came to Eden Park to give fans the chance to see the most coveted prize in women's football in person. 300 kids from ten schools came to Eden Park to take part in a day of non-competitive games, giving some their first taste of football.
