Exhibition opening + on-site café

This weekend marks the opening of Mandela, My Life: The Official Exhibition. Over the coming months whilst the exhibition is in place, the Eden Park Café will be open to public at Entry A Lounge. The menu will include salads, hot bites, sweet and savoury snacks as well as barista coffee, smoothies, beer and wine. Guests do not have to be entering the exhibition to visit the café so we welcome you to come down and grab a coffee!

The TEG Live exhibition, in collaboration with iEC Exhibitions and Museums Victoria, will be held in the North Stand where over 200 original artefacts, documents, personal items and artworks from The Nelson Mandela Foundation and Nelson Mandela's private collection will be featured. The exhibition has arrived directly from its inaugural event in Melbourne and will run until Sunday 4 August before continuing on its 5-year worldwide tour.

Mandela My Life: The Official Exhibition opens this Saturday at 10am and as members of The Hood, you are eligible for a 15% discount on the price of admission if you book your tickets here.

A survey in the local neighbourhood

We have been made aware of a survey being conducted in The Hood area in regards to Eden Park and its activity. We would like to clarify that we did not instigate or commission this and it is being led by a media organisation. Eden Park encourages all residents and businesses approached to participate and have your say.
