Blues v Bulls

The Blues, with a young team, have had a resurgent season and although their playoff hopes were dealt a knock in Christchurch last week there are a lot of positives to take from the season. The last few games are important for a couple of reasons beyond playoff contention in that players like Tom Robinson could push for a world cup spot. The Bulls haven't travelled well this season so the Blues should expect to do well and push for a bonus point.

We have 100 tickets up for grabs, first in first served. As usual, we'll be here from 7am tomorrow at Gate G reception (limited to two tickets per household in The Hood).

Looking for something to do with the kids today? STRIKE a pose at Eden Park for just $10 per adult and $5 per child. Tours depart from Entry G off Reimers Ave at 10am and 2pm. Just show up ten minutes beforehand!

Resident Only Parking

The Auckland Transport resident-only parking scheme will be in place for Friday. You can view more information here.
