Blues v Lions

The Blues return from a successful tour of South Africa where they toppled the unbeaten Stormers, continued to punish the woeful Bulls and then returned to New Zealand to secure a win against a messy Hurricanes outfit in the Cake Tin. With an adjusted start time of 4.25pm this Saturday it's a perfect opportunity to bring the kids along and experience rugby like it was played before professionalisation.

We have 100 tickets up for grabs and each household is entitled to two tickets, first in first served. As usual, we'll be here from 7am tomorrow at Gate G reception (limited to two tickets per household in The Hood).

'Stronger Together' – Auckland's remembrance event for Christchurch

This Sunday 15 March Eden Park is hosting 'Stronger Together' – Auckland's remembrance event for Christchurch to mark 12 months since the Christchurch mosque attacks. Held by Auckland Council and the NZ Muslim Association, the remembrance event will be run in conjunction with the National Remembrance Service in Christchurch. The event will cross live to the service in Hagley Park and will be followed by performances from local Maori and Muslim youth groups, well-known entertainers and guest speakers from parliamentary, emergency service and faith communities.

'Ask Us' sessions will be available for public to learn more about the Muslim culture and faith from local Muslim leaders and Imams (priests). Food stalls will be operating with Halal options and picnic blankets and homemade food can be brought to the event.
