#LetTheMusicPlay submissions now closed

Thank you to everyone who filed a submission and had their say on the stadium's resource consent application to host up to six concerts a year. Submissions closed last Friday and Auckland Council is now collating all submissions received. A hearing will be held and a decision made in due course by a panel of independent commissioners or through the Environment Court process. We'll keep you updated!

Have you seen Kevin?

We've heard there are plenty of friendly teddies hiding in windows around the neighbourhood so we thought we'd share our own version. Meet Kevin! If you're going for your local walk past Eden Park then keep an eye out for him – he'll be somewhere you can see him from outside of the stadium (this photo was taken months ago!). Let everyone know on 'The Hood' Facebook page that you've spotted him but don't reveal where he is. There, you can also find out where he was and when he's been moved to another spot. He's really quite friendly and is part of the Park's history.

#ThanksHealthHeroes – we're lighting up green

The stadium's lighting will be green for the next few weeks to send a special thanks to our healthcare workers! This is part of a global activity where stadiums and other organisations are paying tribute to our healthcare workers during this challenging time - it was also a special request from some of our neighbours. Our exterior lights (ETFE) are LED which makes them energy efficient.

NZ Home and Lifestyle Show

Last month we shared a brief survey on the NZ Home and Lifestyle Show held recently at the Park. This event showcased a large range of products offering inspiration to improve your home and lifestyle with more than 150 exhibitors promoting products including flooring, kitchens, smart home solutions, bathroom products, security, solar, spas, pools and more. 85% said they would attend the event again and all participants rated the event average – excellent.
