Kia ora Hood,

As you may have seen earlier in the week, Eden Park has been named the number one stadium in the world in Pollstar's global rankings, a significant milestone for Auckland, New Zealand and importantly, our Hood.

I would like to take a moment to acknowledge the role each of you have played in this achievement. Since joining the Park in 2017, working side-by-side with our local community has been one of the highlights of my career.

From community Christmas markets to the Eden Park Dog Walking Club, backyard cricket and our very first concert, it has been a pleasure working together to help Eden Park deliver on its promise of being a community asset for all to enjoy.

Thank you for helping to make history at Eden Park!

Nick Sautner
Chief Executive Officer, Eden Park

Activity at Eden Park this weekend

There are no sporting fixtures at Eden Park this weekend. There will be one school ball at on Saturday. As with last week, we are working proactively with the school to manage expectations around student behaviour including during drop-off, and with DJs around noise levels.

If you have any queries during the function, please ring our hotline in the first instance on 09 815 4820. The Hood Facebook is not monitored regularly outside of business hours.

Art in the Park

With less than four weeks until Eden Park's first-ever art show, our team is working away to ensure the event is inclusive and inviting for anyone who wants to come along. Keen to learn more? Read the latest in Stuff, featuring interviews with Eden Park and several prominent artists exhibiting at the show.
