All Blacks v Australia

With last week's suspension of trans-Tasman travel, we are working closely with all stakeholders to plan for impacts to upcoming test matches at Eden Park. The opener of the Bledisloe Cup on 7 August will go ahead as planned.

In the news: Funding for gender-neutral facilities at Eden Park

As you may have seen, Government has committed funding for facilities upgrades at Eden Park ahead of three World Cups in 2022/23. This is an important step in ensuring we provide a world-class experience for all athletes at New Zealand's national stadium!

Thank you for coming!

Thank you to everyone who turned out over the weekend to support Eden Park's first-ever art show, Art in the Park! And to the crowd who came back on Tuesday to back your BLACKCAPS – and their amazing mace!
