Subject: The Hood - NZ Eid Day

To:

With the sighting of the new moon, Eden Park can confirm NZ Eid Day returns once more tomorrow (Tuesday 3 May). Eden Park is a community asset for all, and this free event is a chance for all ages, faiths, ethnicities and genders. There will be food, games, speakers, performances and more.

Gates open at 8:00am, with the Takbeer at 8:30am. Prayers start at 9:00am, and the event ends at 4:00pm.

There will be no road closures in place but streets may be busier than usual.

Please direct parking-related issues to AT on (09) 355 3553. For other event queries call the Eden Park hotline on (09) 815 4820.

You may have noticed a mural going up on the Cricket Ave side of the stadium.

This is a legacy piece representing the three Women's World Cups being held at Eden Park and the artist is Hannah Wilkinson, who has made over 100 appearances for the Football Ferns.

Hannah started last Wednesday and will likely finish the piece on Thursday.
