Super Rugby semi-final: Blues v Brumbies

The Blues take on the sole remaining Australian team in the playoffs, the resurgent Brumbies. Despite trailing 14-3 against the Hurricanes at one point, and with a red card, they pulled it back and finished ten points clear.

Their vaunted forward pack (and somewhat controversial maul) will meet a Blues side without only two preferred starters (Dalton Papalii and Caleb Clarke) in a battle for a spot in the final. This promises to be a bruising encounter, although the Blues will have learnt a lot from their last encounter and will hopefully not have to resort to a last-gasp drop goal!

Gates open at 5:30pm, with kick off at 7:05pm and we have 100 tickets to give away. They will be available at Entry G from 9:30am tomorrow, 11 June, on a first in, first served basis. Tickets are limited to two per household in The Hood and are likely to run out very quickly.
