The Hood - Blues v Highlanders, 50 Days to Go Until FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™, and What's On at Eden Park

Blues v Highlanders - Friday 2 June

This Friday our Blues take on the Highlanders here at Eden Park in the last regular round of the season.

There is plenty on the line, as the Blues look to cement a home quarter final, and the Highlanders look to stay in contention for the playoffs.

Gates open at 5:30pm, with the kick off at 7:05pm.

We have a limited number of complimentary tickets to give away to members of The Hood.

They will be available from 8:30am at Entry G Reception, Friday 2 June on a first-in, first-served basis. Tickets are limited to two per household in The Hood.

Alternatively, you can purchase tickets through Flickit.

Preparing the Park for FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™

With the tournament now just 50 days away, you might start to notice activity happening around the Park. We're busy trimming the shrubs, sprucing up the gardens and making the venue look great in preparation for the biggest event New Zealand has ever seen!

Eden Park is extremely proud to be supporting the progression of women's sports and investing in the legacy of the event.

The countdown is on!

Hyundai and Kia renew FIFA partnerships until 2030

Last week we were thrilled to see our icon partner, Kia, renew their partnership as FIFA's official mobility partnership, providing transportation, autonomous driving technologies and future mobilities services at global events and tournaments.

The renewed partnership (through Hyundai Motor Group) will cover a wide range of competitions, including the FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™ and the FIFA World Cup 2026™.

Eden Park is proud to partner with Kia New Zealand. Our ongoing partnership is established around excellence – two iconic global leaders with an ongoing commitment to innovation, environment and sustainability.
