The Hood -
Celebrating FIFA Women's World Cup
2023™

It's here!

Last night, Eden Park kicked off the FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™ in style.

In a game for the ages, our Football Ferns won the opening match against Norway 1-0, with Hannah Wilkinson scoring in the 47th minute.

One thing is certain - we're in for an epic tournament!

There are plenty more games to come and we would love for you to be part of the action.

Traffic Management Plans - FWWC2023™

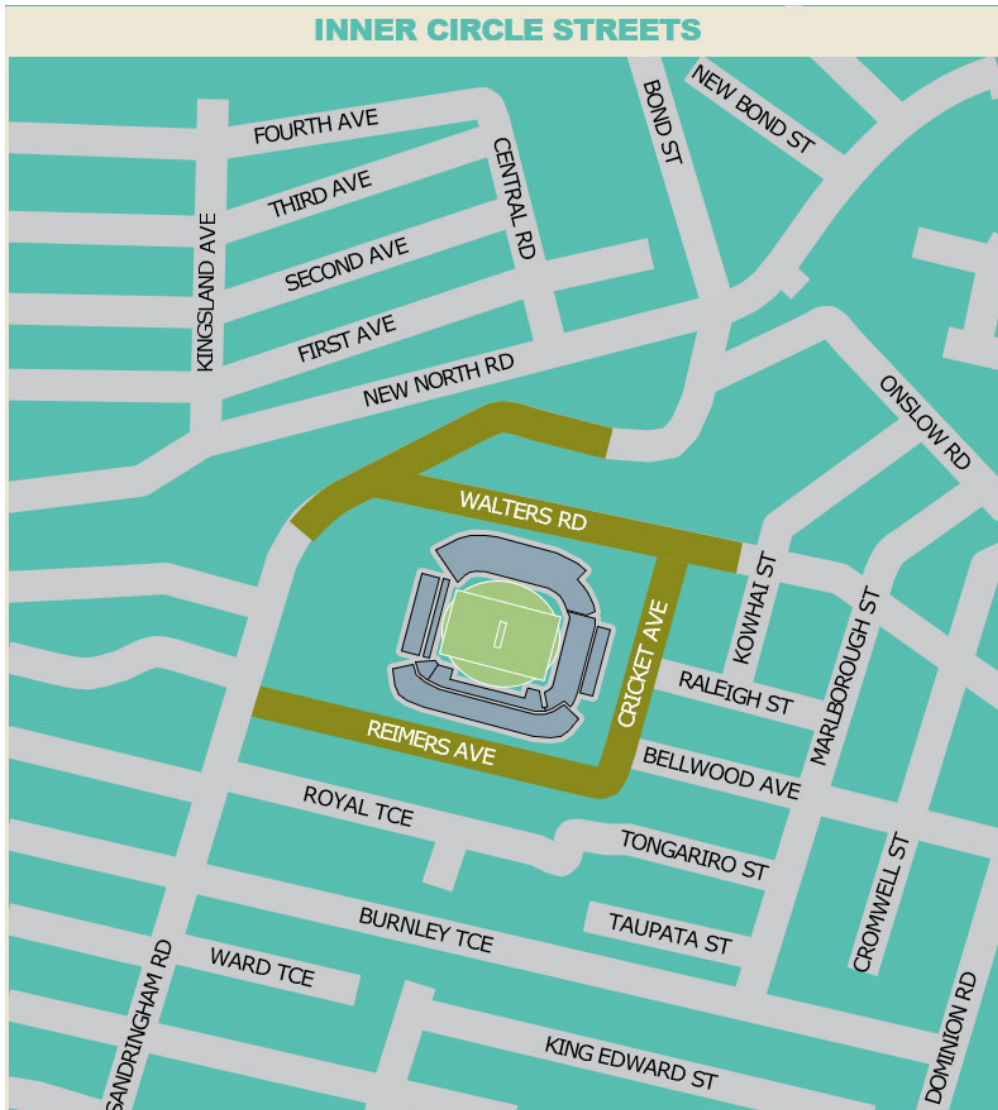

Last week, a letter and fridge magnet was sent to all residents in the Traffic Management Plan (TMP) zone.

The magnet lists the dates and game times of all the matches and the QR code at the bottom right links to the up-to-date traffic management plan for the upcoming matches.

If you didn't receive a magnet, you can visit the website directly to view the most recent TMPs: <https://edenpark.co.nz/fifatmp/>

And if you still have questions. please get in touch with us at info@edenpark.co.nz or on match days, by calling our 24/7 hotline - (09) 815 4820.

Football Ferns Hero Hannah Wilkinson's Mural at Eden Park

Earlier this year, we unveiled a brand new mural on Eden Park's outer Eastern wall - created by Football Fern, Hannah Wilkinson.

The mural celebrates the three women's World Cups played at our stadium over the past two years.

Hannah is a great friend of the Park, so we were up out of our seats when she scored the winning goal for the Football Ferns last night!

For Hannah to achieve a striking first in a stadium so special to her is something no other world footballer can claim.

“It’s amazing to have that part of me on the outside of the stadium and then scoring inside of it - not many people can say that, so it’s pretty cool”.
