The Hood - FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™ survey, Art Battle and more

FIFA Women's World Cup 2023™ survey

Ahead of the Portugal v USA fixture tonight, and with three big knockout games to come, we wanted to take a moment to check in with you to find out more about your experience.

With more fixtures than normal, we understand that the event's scale and the associated road closures, traffic management plans, and increased activities might have had an impact on your daily lives. Your feedback will enable us to assess how well the event's logistics, traffic management, and noise control measures have been implemented and how they have affected your daily routines.
