EID-AL-ADHA at Eden Park
Tuesday 18 June

We are looking forward to celebrating EID-AL-ADHA on Tuesday 18 June. This family-friendly event will create an atmosphere of happiness, fun, diversity and unity at Eden Park.

There will be plenty to entertain the whole family with games, cultural performances, educational displays and guest speakers on offer throughout the day. A wide variety of food stalls will also be cooking up a storm!

- Gates open at 8am
- Prayers start at 9am
- Entry is free

Eid events traditionally see Eden Park's carpark fill up quickly and we have asked anyone who is attending this event to either consider walking to the stadium or using public transport.

Just as we did recently for the Auckland Home & Garden Show, we will be roping off berms in the surrounding streets to prevent unauthorised parking. There will also be security outside the venue, extra parking officers in the precinct and street-cleaning post-event.

Parking-related issues can be communicated to AT on (09) 355 3553.

For other event queries call the Eden Park hotline on (09) 815 4820.

Don't forget to visit Eden Park Community Book Library

We're super excited to share the new Eden Park Community Book Library with you. Our vision is to provide a book for every reader in the Hood.

The Book Library is located on the corner of Cricket Ave and Walters Rd alongside the community garden.

Come along and take a book or share a book!
