The Hood - Events to Note

Slide Opening, Friday 25 October

This Friday, October 25th, we're excited to reveal The Hood's latest attraction: a community playground tower featuring four colourful slides!

We'd love you to join us for the opening – meet us at 12 pm by the slides on Cricket Ave, situated between Gates E and D. You won't be able to miss them – they're bright! The first 50 kids down the slide will get a special gift. We understand that not all schools have a teacher-only day, but hopefully you'll get a chance to enjoy them at another time.

This playground was created with local families in mind. We're committed to improving our community spaces and ensuring that Eden Park remains a welcoming environment for everyone.

New Initiative: Hood Helpers

With the upcoming concerts, we will have our Hood Helpers around the neighbourhood. If you missed their introduction over the past couple of weeks:

This team of Māori Wardens, members of Ngāti Whātua Orakei, and Community Patrol, will be on the streets outside Eden Park, including those within the road closure points during concerts.

The role is to:

- Ensure patrons attending the concerts get to and from the stadium safely.
- Provide assistance and support to you as residents should you have any queries.

The Hood Helpers will debut on Wednesday 30 October for the Travis Scott concert. They will also be on duty during all three Coldplay shows on Wednesday 13 November, Friday 15 November, and Saturday 16 November.

Look out for them in their blue reflective vests, as pictured above, and feel free to say hello!
